Love is pain is a coming of age narrative based on a young girl's interpretation of love. This poignant raw read explores the depth of love, loss, and gratitude. She chronicled agonizing moments of her life through memoirs and poetry, but could never separate love from its endless relationship with pain. After going through another break-up, did she look into the role she may have played in all of her unsuccessful relationships. So, she divulged back into the writing she'd given up long ago to help her understand what she and others were dealing with. As she walked the path of her yesterdays, typed the words written by the poor little kid, the lost teenager and fragile adult would she discover answers. She relived some of the most painful memories of her life and unveil truths she didn't know existed.
