Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is written in easy terms and never hard to understand. It has been designed in an exceedingly easy way and it is only after I finished reading this publication that I in fact changed my way of thinking.

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bullying is a reality in our churches. It has devastated many people s lives. Bullying in the Church: Addressing a Hidden Problem in Christianity calls God s people to understand what bullying is, how we may be guilty of bullying others in the church, and how imperative it is to relate to one another in love. Endorsements: It has been said the church is the only army that shoots its wounded. Too often, it s also the one doing the wounding. Mike Sarkissian explores the reality of bullying in the church and points us back to the one solution to this and every problem, that we would repent and believe the gospel. -R.C. Sproul Jr. In Mike Sarkissian s book, he discusses what God s word says about sin, gossip, slander and other related evils. And he presents a clear and helpful analysis of how our postmodern culture has robbed us of the resources to deal with the situation. All of this within a strong gospel-centered appeal. I recommend this book and hope that it will receive a broad hearing. -Dr. John Frame Professor of Systematic Theology Philosophy Reformed Theological Seminary Mike Sarkissian courageously and openly exposes the sin problem behind bullying as well as its satanic character and the dreadful havoc it reaps. Masterfully he unfolds God s solution for this minimized sin: to live out of the person, the cross, and the words of Jesus Christ. -Dr. Joel R. Beeke President, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary This book by Mike Sarkissian is rigorously biblical, both in exposing the problem and providing the solution. I am happy to commend this book, the first I ve ever read of its kind, to...
