Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 274 x 208 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Taking time to design your life is at least as important as planning a vacation. Yet, the average American family will spend hours, days, and even weeks to find the perfect destination, the most efficient mode of transportation; taking time to construct a daily chain of events that will allow for an exquisite experience. Once the plan is in place, it allows the vacation to proceed with limited surprises, a comfortable execution, and without the daily stress of constant indecision. Consider that your life plan and expectations are at least as important as a vacation. So what is right for you at this time in your life? Is it time to vigorously pursue your goals or is it time to stop and smell the roses. There are those who loudly proclaim, No pain, no gain and others that encourage you to Go with the flow. Success can be yours, but what is success to you? This book is about taking the time to determine where you are in life and what is important to you. With the Run Away with Purpose, Retreat Guide, you have the opportunity to create, manage, and build a framework that will evolve as you do and give your life the structure necessary to confidently take care of your responsibilities while pursuing your greatest dreams. A periodic Retreat is important for everyone, from successful executives and general staff, to housewives and moms. You may be fully engaged in developing a career or you may be a retiree who is finally enjoying watching grandchildren grow and evening sunsets. A Retreat gives you an opportunity to look at the big picture, choose the details that...
