If the acronym TGIF is an indication, a great percentage of the American workforce lives for weekends and days off. That means that a typical 40-hour workweek over a work life of 40 years amounts to approximately 9 years of marking time. Factoring in time spent sleeping, that leaves slightly over 17 of those 40 years to enjoy life. Author Ellen Ratner's interactive book, Loving What You Do: The Elements of a Great Working Life, guides the reader's introspection to get to the why, as well as many tips, tools, examples and resources to get to the how . . . how to make work life not only tolerable, but enjoyable. Whatever your profession, career, vocation or job, and whether you are new to the workforce or a long-time veteran, this book is life-changing.
