

Cape May

By Holly Caster

TDC Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 310 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. There are YA books, new adult books, and now finally a book about and for grown-ups! New Yorker Joanna Matthews is rapidly approaching 60 and desperate for a change. The last remotely daring thing she did jumping into an unconventional marriage with her best friend Brian happened 20 years ago. Now, their lives comfortable, if routine. Joanna craves more and begins pursuing her long-deferred dream: owning and running a bed and breakfast. She's captivated by Cape May, New Jersey, America's Oldest Seaside Resort. On the bus south, she meets a novelist, and is thunderstruck when she falls passionately in love for the first time. How will her late awakening affect the future and her three-decade relationship with Brian? Reviews! Hooray for Holly Caster's debut novel Cape May, a refreshing tale of sudden, unexpected love between a married woman and a man whose paths cross by happenstance. Set against the backdrop of Cape May's picturesque Victorian homes and beaches, this book is wholly original in its heart-felt depiction of passion kindled in the middle years and the ensuing repercussions in an affair's aftermath. Cape May is a stunner that kept this reader...
