Positive Imaging, LLC, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Handyman s Guide To Profit includes all the information you need to start a successful handyman business in your community using the skills you already have and basic consumer level tools. The 2017 Revised Edition is an updated version of The Handyman s Guide To Profit with a special, limited time price of only $10.95. If you were among the thousands who lost a job during the economic crisis or accepted a lower paying job, this book is for you. As a handyman you ll never get laid off again. Regardless of the economy, homes and buildings always need repairs. When the economy crashed in 2008 millions lost jobs and many struggled for years and some are still struggling to catch up. I was fortunate then but years before I had a profitable writing and consulting business helping federally funded housing programs across the country. My reputation was established and I was selling books, a monthly newsletter, and traveling to help communities leverage the housing funds they received from the federal government. Unfortunately, after a national election, everything changed and all the housing funds disappeared and so did my business. Just as those who lost their jobs, the money stopped. What saved me was the handyman and carpenter skills I learned in my youth. My limited savings were dwindling and I didn t have time to find a job. I no longer owned a truck so I purchased and outfitted a small trailer with all the handyman tools I needed and hit the ground running. After just a few ads in local weekly papers I was working everyday and making a decent living. At first most of the jobs were small...
