Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from History, Gazetteer and Directory of the County of Oxford, 1852: Comprising a General Survey of the County, and Embracing Separate Historical Descriptions of the University and City of Oxford, the Boroughs of Banbury and Woodstock, and All the Market Towns, Together With Notices of Every Parish Many striking evidences of the stupendous public works accomplished by the Romans during their residence in this country still remain. Like a conqueror of modern times, they bestowed extraordinary attention on their public roads and walls, and at a distance of 1400 years, we can trace in legible characters around us, the labours of the mistress of the world. The Roman veterans were no less famed for their valour in the field than for their knowledge and assiduity in architecture and sculpture, for they fought and labored with equal skill and vigour, and it is much to be regretted that this wise policy of keeping the soldiery usefully employed in time of peace, should have been abandoned by the modern European nations.
