Excerpt: .made a long speech to show that the Democratic party had redeemed all its pledges to organized labor, citing the Claton Bill as one instance. The Democratic platform pledges itself to this and other labor legislation. The Bull Moose platform also makes a bid for the labor vote, though not in such drastic or explicit terms as does the Democratic. The Republican platform takes a firm stand against this species of legislation and insists upon the maintenance of the dignity and authority of the courts. It can at once be seen, therefore, that industrial questions and so-called labor legislation are among the most important of the present political issues. It is to be hoped that the leaders of the Democratic party will recognize the dangerous boomerang involved in offering vicious class legislation as a sop for the mythical labor vote and will take this issue out of the campaign by some strong, clear and unequivocal statement. The internal affairs of the Association were never in better order. Labor conditions generally are quiet, although of late there has been a greater demand for men than it was possible always to supply. Some of our members are going with success into the far Western field and find open-shop work there feasible on account of the strong open-shop sentiment already existing in that locality. Low prices for work seems to be the chief complaint, but there seems promise for a betterment along this line. Last Fall and...
