Haunted by ancient memories, immortal Jurian Locke walks the road toward London to enter King Edwards last tournament of the season. Cursed by a jealous enchantress in distant times, he is bound to await his soul mates rebirth and respond to her need in times of danger. Lady Elena Gregory blames her lame leg for her lack of suitors. As the Earl of Hawthorns only daughter, she has received only two unacceptable marriage proposals. Somehow, she must appear less damaged and more desirable at the Yule tournament. No easy task when the simple act of crossing a broken field is almost more than she can accomplish. In a time when acts of valor and chivalry are rewarded, can a simple man-at-arms hope to gain enough favor to be deemed worthy of an Earls daughter, and the only woman he can ever love.
