

Not Here to Mark Off the Days (Paperback)

By Bob Carneal

Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Who are you? Why are you here? As we journey through life sooner or later we feel the gnawing questions of our own self worth. Some term this introspection a mid-life crisis, but this hunger to know our own value can happen at any time. What's missing? What am I doing? There is a God given intent to this stirring. Come journey down ages past and get perspective from those who have gone before. Realize you are given life with purpose and not merely placed upon this earth to languish and mark off the days. It's your time. Let's begin. Bob Carneal is active duty Air Force for almost twenty years. Over the course of two deployments to Baghdad, Iraq the Lord stirred him to write this book. Although he knew there was a difference, he had to experience the genuine reality between believing and walking in belief. Arising from his own experiences spanning four years of boyhood in East Africa as a missionary's kid, to walking amidst danger in the ancient Biblical land that is now...
