REMEMBERING INFLATION (HARDBACK)

Princeton University Press, United States, 2013. Hardback Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book Today s global economy, with most developed nations experiencing very low inflation, seems a world apart from the Great Inflation that spanned the late 1960s to early 1980s. Yet, in this book, Brigitte Granville makes the case that monetary economists and policymakers need to keep the lessons learned during that period very much in mind, lest we return to them by making the same mistakes...
