Excerpt from Counterrevolution American: Foreign and Domestic Policy and Economic Aspects of National Defense The struggle against communism is nor an attempt either to destroy Russia or to preserve the United States; it is not merely another of the numerous rivalries between nations that have crowded the pages of history. The struggle against communism is a crucial one for the survival of Western Civilization. Whether this struggle will mark the decline and fall of Western Civilization or will set the stage for a new, great advance comparable to that of recent centuries remains to be seen. Because this is not merely a struggle between jealous or greedy monarchs nor solely a war for empire and trade nor a religious war between ignorant and intolerant tribesmen, we muse seek below the surface and behind events of the day for the fundamental causes of the conflict within Western Civilization. At least briefly we must sketch the outline of developments on a broad front and in the perspective of recent centuries. The Situation in Perspective Several hundred years ago Western...
