My novel is autobiographic, my novel is my life. The White house or a Destiny of a Poet contains upon example of a dissident-literator a sociological investigation of Russian life which is very different, detailed shown, from TV and official declarations. In 45 a hero, possessor of academic degree, was discharged and deprived of any job. There is a special organisation, that does it and keeps an eye you havent got a job. The hero was able to get Boris Eltzyn to take part in his destination and to rehabilitate him from a falsification, but the system appears to be stronger. In parts 1-3 and 4-5, a hero is deprived all his rights: a right to work, a right to love - a divorce, and a right to poetry. But a revolution is coming! And this is all his hopes. He was able to publish his first collection of verses. He was accepted to Union of Writers by feat of A. Soljenitzyn and B. Okudjava. He discovers the rhythms of ancient bylina. To strike a wall of silence, he sends...
