How many of you have met those girls who were molested by their known ones when they had not even crossed the age of 14? Isn't forced & unwilling sex after marriage similar to a rape? Whether the prayers offered in love strong enough to bring back someone's lost beloved from PoK? How many of you know a person whose deeds are completely ideal, something which only a God can do? Whether religion, caste or community should really be a parameter in deciding the hierarchy & dominance of people living in this world? God and his girl-friend is a mercurial story about two youngsters, from entirely different backgrounds who strive hard against their comfort to live with their passion.
