Men I Might Have Known

By Brad Saunders

Kensington Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Everyone experiences it--that moment when you lock eyes with a perfect stranger and feel a shiver of requited lust. Too often, those opportunities slip by unexplored. But in this steamy, imaginative collection, Brad Saunders turns what if into what happened, recreating the sizzling chance connections he's experienced--and playing them out in uninhibited stories that tap into our deepest fantasies about what can happen when we take the next step. From a glorious day on a sun-kissed Greek beach with a beautiful German man, to a college crush that turns out to be deliciously mutual, these stories are sometimes tender, sometimes torrid, and always deeply erotic. A gym buddy provides a workout to remember. . . Venturing up to a Manhattan rooftop party yields a spectacular view--and not of the skyline. . . And on a city crosswalk, saving a handsome artist from traffic earns the kind of gratitude that can't be conveyed in words. Hedonistic threesomes, hot nightclub trysts, sweet and sensitive first times. . . whether set in exotic locales or on in your very own bed, these intimate,...
