In case the acceptor desires to have the acceptance made payable at a bank located in some other place than his home city, he must arrange with the seller to have such a designation, or authority to make it, incorporated in the body of the acceptance, at the time it is made by the seller. Otherwise, it may not conform to the Negotiable Instruments Law. Special Inducements. The question has been very much discussed as to whether any inducements should be offered to the buyer to give his acceptance. Opinions on this point differ: but it should not be done, because such practice might be abused, and at anv rate, the advantages to the buyer should obviate the necessity of any other inducements. A corporation which has...
