So I am not going to be able to hear the testimony personally, but I will have staff here and I will look closely at the testimony and read the testimony personally. As I am sure you know, we are profoundly grateful to you for your dedication and devotion, Mr. Chairman, to ensuring the con-tributions and to the witnesses for keeping alive the contributions of their loved ones, their neighbors and the appropriateness that we find a way to acknowledge their contribution. Through the testi-mony this morning, I hope we can identify creative and legislative options, non-controversial if we think hard, I think we can do that, to honor those who died and sacrificed at Shanksville and in Penn-sylvania, and their contributions and the contributions that you continue to make. I look forward to...
