Train of Thought Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Your husband cheated on you, and now you don't recognize yourself. You used to be so together, so trusting. Now you're falling apart and doing things you would have never even considered doing, such as: * Obsessively checking your husband's email and Facebook accounts * Going through his cell phone history while he is in the shower * Freaking out if he is 10 minutes late (or if you text him and he doesn't reply right away) * Questioning whether you are attractive * After a rare happy moment with your husband, getting really, really angry and raging at him out of nowhere You're scared. Angry. Obsessive. Devastated. One minute, you hope your marriage will make it. The next minute, you want to kill him. (And the other woman, too.) All of this makes you feel like you are losing it. Sometimes you worry that you are going crazy. You wonder if you'll ever be the same again. You are NOT crazy! You are having a normal reaction to being blindsided by your husband's betrayal! Your reactions are completely rational and expected responses to such a painful experience. This book will help you figure out what to do as you deal with these explosive emotions. It's important that you understand that your feelings--erratic and unpredictable as they may be--are normal. You need to understand why you feel the things you feel and what to do with those feelings. Caroline Madden, infidelity expert and marriage therapist describes: Posttraumatic Affair Syndrome (PTAS) 7 Actions you want to take but should NOT (as They May Backfire Horribly) Understand the thoughts that plague you 12 Actions that will...
