Like clock work young Phoenix McNeer could hear her mother's words ring in the back of her head. Groomed for the perfect man from the day she was old enough to step in a pair of kitten heel shoes Phoenix had helplessly held her breath until the day the man her mother had sworn would come ready to swoop her into his life would arrive. Learning from past mistakes when it came to love Phoenix eventually agrees to try things her mother's way. Handsome with a tad a school boy charisma Dash Applewhite saw Phoenix in his life the very second he laid eyes on her flawless face. Grabbing ahold of Phoenix's heart without a doubt Dash has no desire to ever let it go. The relationship of her dreams slowly begins to uncover its night mare ways to young Phoenix. Feeling somewhat trapped Phoenix battles against herself as she fights to stick through with the love she and Dash have developed together. Finding out the hard way love...
