At the end of the eighteenth century the vogue of the Gothic romance of ghosts and mysteries was at its height; and this work, written in ten weeks by a young man of nineteen, caught the public fancy tremendously, and Matthew Gregory Lewis was straightway accepted as an adept at making the flesh creep. Taste changes in horrors, as in other things, and Ambrosio, or The Monk, would give nightmares to few modern readers. Its author, who was born in London on July 9, 1775, and published The Monk in 1795, wrote many supernatural tales and poems, and also several plays--one...
