Sandstone Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Frances is doing fine; she has her life sorted. Then comes the phone call from Alec, the husband who left her for her younger sister Susan, thirteen years ago. Susan has disappeared, and Alec wants her daughter Kate to come and stay with Frances, out of harm s way. Meanwhile, Frances youngest sister, Gillian, finds that two months after ending her relationship with a married man, she is pregnant. While all this is going on another crisis is looming. It s been a family full of secrets. Frances and Gillian haven t even managed to tell their parents Susan is missing. After all, she s left unacknowledged thirteen years of birthday and Christmas presents for Kate, the granddaughter they never saw. She was the one who made sure she could never be forgiven, and now there s another secret. It s not always the things you fear most, which matter in the end.
