Trafford Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Channeled by Verling Chako Priest, Ph.D., RELATIONSHIPS: The Many Aspects is an informative little book. The Masters come forth and give a teaching on one of the many aspects of a relationship. This book is appropriate for all ages, as it leads the reader into self-examination of his or her relationships. Sananda gives the Foreword and Introduction. He also teaches on religions in the first chapter. St. Germain teaches on the importance of giving and being able to receive. Serapis Bey speaks on kindness. Djwhal Khul teaches about transitions. God uses scabs as a metaphor for all the violence and factions of negativity that humanity is experiencing. As people come together and dialogue, bits of the scab chip off so that healing can begin. Mary Magdalene follows with her piece on acceptance. Ashtar talks about relationships in his Galactic Command. Lady Nada notes that people wear rose-colored glasses in their relationships. Babaji speaks about the complexity of this subject. Kuthumi teaches the importance of releasing. Twelve chapters lead the readers to introspection of their belief systems, parental programming, and how they perceive...
