Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Disturbing Issues, Bilingualism and Home Rule: Address Before the Canadian Club, Guelph, Ontario There is a feeling amongst many of us who are members of the various denominations commonly called Protestant - and when I use the word it is in contradistinction to Roman Catholicism - that unless we tuck our religion under our pillows when going to bed it may be destroyed by Quebec reactionaries. A reactionary never destroys anything in these days, though his doctrines may be kept alive through opposition, even making some headway under such conditions. We are prone to accentuate difficulties if they be favoured with race or religion. There is the kernel of most of the trouble which arises out of such controversies. This bilingual question, the outcome of trouble between the Irish and French Roman Catholics, was in no way - as I see it - started by reactionaries in Quebec - though it doubtless has their whole-hearted support. May I liken the situation to two neighbours. One does something that the other regards as offensive, and the attention of the offender...
