DIARY OF A DARK-SKINNED DIVA (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, 2014. Paperback Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Beauty is only skin-deep, then why does the color of that skin matter so much? Why does it create dividing lines within one s own race, community, and even the family? From birth, Jinnie was darker than her siblings, and relatives unthinkingly punished her for it. She learned early that those with lighter skin-tones in the black community were considered smarter, prettier, and...
