British Film Institute, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. 1st ed. 2017. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hollywood has a complex relationship with local markets around the world. This critical yet accessible overview of Hollywood s local presence investigates the dynamic between the studios film entertainment divisions and individual media markets - exploring how their position, partnerships and practices function in an era characterised by globalisation, digitisation and convergence. Engaging with key scholarly and industrial debates, the book incorporates first-hand accounts gathered from extensive fieldwork and research. It addresses a wide range of international operations, from creative partnerships and production strategies to promotional and distribution processes. With a particular focus on Europe and Latin America, the text interrogates earlier notions of a `global Hollywood and globalisation, where media conglomerates were viewed as economically rational or all-powerful organisations. By exploring how decision-making processes and creative negotiations between Hollywood media executives and local forces operate, it reveals the complex picture of filmmaking and circulation in today s supposedly globalised and digitised societies.
