Dept. of Labor, Employee Benefits Security Administration, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)71324514 Subject: Employer-sponsored health insurance -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . The election notice must include: The name of the plan and the name, address, and telephone number of the plans COBRA administrator; Identification of the qualifying event; Identification of the qualified beneficiaries (by name or by status); An explanation of the qualified beneficiaries right to elect continuation coverage; The date coverage will terminate (or has terminated) if continuation covered is not elected; How to elect continuation coverage; What will happen if continuation coverage isnt elected or is waived; What continuation coverage is available, for how long, and (if it is for less than 36 months), how it can be extended for disability or second qualifying events; How continuation coverage might terminate early; Premium payment requirements, including due dates and grace periods; A statement of the importance of keeping the plan administrator informed of the addresses of qualified beneficiaries; and A statement that the election notice does not fully describe COBRA or the plan and that more information is available from the plan administrator and in the SPD. The Department has developed a model election notice that plans may use to satisfy their obligation to provide the election notice. The model election notice is available on the EBSA Web site at www.dol.gov/ebsa. In order to use this model election notice properly, the plan administrator must complete it by filling in the blanks with the appropriate plan information. Use of the model election notice, appropriately completed, will be considered by the Department to be good faith...
