21st Century Christian, Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Chris Altmock's timely book brings us back to the one who is the source and pattern of all prayer: Jesus Christ. Prayers from the Pit listens in on Jesus' most intimate conversations with his heavenly Father. Those who long for a deeper, richer, and more honest relationship with God would do well to follow Chris's example, and come to sit at the feet of the Master. Christopher Webb, president, Renovare We all face troubles of many kinds. In this warm, simple, and challenging book, Chris Altmock invites us to be drawn into the relationship between Jesus and the Father, a relationship formed and sustained by prayer. Gary Holloway; director, World Convention; Praying Dangerously Clear, down-to-earth, user-friendly and user-realistic, Altmock's study of Jesus as a pray-er and of His prayers is unique in my experience. It is also as full of grace as it is of help and sound instruction. Altmock points us to the deep well that the actual prayers of Jesus can be for our own praying. In very practical ways he teaches us to pray with Jesus. Randy Harris, Abilene Christian University Chris Altmock serves as the Preaching Minister for the Highland Street Church of Christ in Cordova, TN. He taught classes as an adjunct instructor at Oklahoma Christian University and the Harding University Graduate School of Religion, from which...
