PROBLEMS OF TRANSLATION: CHARLIE S COMIC, TERRIFYING, ROMANTIC, LOOPY ROUND-THE-WORLD JOURNEY IN SEARCH OF LINGUISTIC HAPPINESS (PAPERBACK)

Blue Mile Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . . A MERRY, YEARLONG CHASE AROUND THE GLOBE. --Kirkus Reviews Exceptional, original, deftly crafted from beginning to end, . an inherently fascinating, unique, funny, and compelling read .very highly recommended. --Midwest Book Review A comic masterpiece Poignant Pretty much perfectly done and A Shelf Unbound 2015 Notable Book Charles Abel Baker--short story writer and a most unlikely middle-aged hero --sets off around the world on a quest to see one of his short stories translated into ten different languages and back again into English, a sort of literary version of the old party game telephone. In Moscow, St. Petersburg, Siberia, China, India, Iceland, Japan, Mexico, and more, Charlie s round-the-world peregrinations are comical, romantic and, at times, hair-raising. Problems of Translation is a cloak-and-dagger adventure, a love story, and a bracing ride for the language buff. Its naive hero s quixotic mission will ultimately transform Charlie and those around him. And along the way, Charlie--lonely, divorced--comes to love and be loved by a generous, complicated woman, and at last to understand what drove him to undertake this journey. Who knew that literary translation could be so perilous? So romantic? So downright funny? A rousing hybrid and a great read, Problems of Translation is as stimulating as it is entertaining. An insanely amusing adventure that has a deep love of language at its belly-shaking core. -Gary Shteyngart, author of Little Failure and A Super Sad True Love Story Jim Story s name says it all: he was meant to be a writer.I hope everyone reads this book! -Hannah Tinti, author of The Good Thief; editor-in-chief of One Story In this comic masterpiece.we take a wild ride.through the underside of the literary world.as [Charlie]...
