REPRESENTATION Representation is a term used to describe all forms of drawing which show the appearance of objects. In school drawing it is sometimes called Freehand Drawing or Pictorial Drawing, Object, Animal, and Pose Drawing, etc. When used in DESIGN, it is the language of the Fine Arts. As taught in the schools its purpose is three-fold: First, to develop in the pupil some technical skill, to help him to learn how to draw; second, to help him to acquire a knowledge of objects in terms of the objects themselves, --that is, to know more about an object because he has drawn it; third, through participation in various modes of expression, accompanied by the study of works of art, to arouse in him an interest that shall enable him to understand and appreciate pictures, and create in him an aesthetic response to beauty in art. Ability To Draw The ability to represent-objects is not wholly dependent upon a native talent in that direction, although commonly supposed to be. The power to represent objects in picture form depends upon an educated sense perception of direction of line and proportion and shapes of surfaces, as well as upon a knowledge of the laws which govern their appearance as known in the Science of Perspective. It therefore may be a matter of intelligent thought as well as of native feeling; a matter of a visual knowledge of objects as well as of an asthetic appreciation of them. When...
