Alpha Books, East Rutherford, New Jersey, U.S.A., 2001. Soft cover. Condition: New. 327 Pages. Book Description: Learn all the skills and strategies from a seasoned expert Highlights the basics of a song in various popular genres and mediums Explains how to set up a recording studio, find collaborators, choose a publisher and find an agent Discusses how the Internet is impacting the world of songwriting Song has been a part of peoples culture since the beginning. From classical and rock and roll to country and jazz--there are hundreds of thousands of budding and established songwriters burning to write the next great hit. The Complete Idiots Guide® to Songwriting is the one-stop resource for all inspiring songwriters to learn how much musical training is needed, how to put together the basics of a song for various popular genres, how to tailor songs to different industries (TV and film), how to get great ideas, where to find collaborators, publishers and agents and how the Internet is impacting the world of songwriting. Joel Hirschhorn is a two-time Academy Award-winning songwriter ("The Morning After" from "The Poseidon Adventure" and "We May Never Love Like This Again" from "The Towering Inferno.") He was also nominated for best song for "Candle on the Water" from "Petes Dragon." In addition, Joel has been honored with 4 Golden Globe nominations, two Tony nominations, a Peoples Choice award and a dozen BMI awards. From the Backcover: The Complete Idiot's Guide(r) to Songwriting will be the one-stop resource for all aspiring songwriters to learn: how much musical training you need (if you have none), how to put together the basics of a song in various popular genres (country & western, hip hop, Latin, adult contemporary, pop), as well as for different industries, such as television and film, and where to...
