Paperback. Condition: New. 280 pages. HERETICAL RITES is a story of the Desidaria, beings made powerful by their heightened intuition and their relationship with the soul. After the minister Matthew falls from grace, seduced by one of their kind, he sets out to exterminate all Desidaria, setting his sights on Pamela, a supermodel who must use all of her powers to save herself from his vengeance. AN EXCERPT: Something was going terribly wrong. Lying naked on his back, the young womans knees clutching his ribs, her thighs rubbing the ridge of his hips, Bryan had gasped to feel the pull of her body as she entombed his erection. Her small breasts pointed downward at him, and he had reached his hands toward them, but the intensity removed the strength from his arms and they had fallen limply to his sides. She hung her head over his, the relishing joy in her face as her mouth twisted its smile from innocent to diabolical and then settled on an expression of bliss. Their casual late morning meeting as he went to get the paper had seemed like destiny, her seduction a pleasingly light dessert after the previous evening with Pamela. Yet now he knew, and now he recognized his mistake. She had flirted, then yielded so easily that he had been caught up in his seemingly limitless power over women, a power to walk into a mini-mart and walk out with a newspaper, a candy bar, and this wisp of a brunette. When they walked together, teasingly touching, toward his apartment, hed felt capable of winning and subduing any woman, and he scanned the streets hoping that others could see what he imagined as the tangible force of his will. He had almost been disappointed to disappear inside the building with her....
