LIFE OF THE TANAGER (HARDBACK)

Cornell University Press, United States, 1989. Hardback. Condition: New. Dana Gardner (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book Alexander F. Skutch has spent more than 40 years studying Neotropical birds, mostly in southern Costa Rica, where he makes his home. In this charming book he observes the habits of the tanagers, a family of some 230 species of brightly colored, predominantly fruit-eating birds of the New World. Skutch describes many of the unusual things he has seen tanagers do, and details...
