The apostle Paul knew this more than any other apostle. In Philippians 3:7-16 he offers some very helpful insights on dealing with the trials we all experience. In these few verses he teaches us how to maintain the right priorities, He shows us the source of our strength and reminds us of the fellowship we can experience as we persevere to victory. The purpose of this book is to use Philippians 3:7-16 as a means of strengthening, encouraging and comforting those who need hope in their time of struggle.
