THE STONE GALLOWS (PAPERBACK)

Myrmidon Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. I guess the end justifies the means. At least that s what I believe. Most of the time . After the accident, DC Cameron Stone had spent three months in intensive care before he could even recall what happened: the high speed pursuit of a vice baron through the night streets of Glasgow that had not only almost finished him but had taken the life of a teenage mother and her child. Then there d been the message from Audrey on the back of a get well soon card announcing that she had left him and taken their young son, Mark, with her. Booze, anti-depressants and therapy have all failed to enable him to resume his old job. So now Stone lives in a one-room flat in the worst part of town. He pays the rent by running errands for a private detective agency. His tasks include tracking down a teenage runaway and surveillance for a woman who thinks her husband is sleeping with her sister. He s also paid by his former colleagues, doing the work that s not quite clean enough for them to do themselves - like putting the fear of God into Jason Campbell, a newly released sex offender whose been seen hanging around the local High School in his soft-top Mercedes. Stone is having a bad week. Audrey is getting difficult about contact arrangements for Mark. She s moved into the pulsh home of a plastic surgeon: there s talk of marriage - and adoption for Mark. He finds his runaway in a brothel and just gets roughed-up for his trouble. There s the knife wielding kids who try to mug him on the stairs and the daubing on his front door...
