Mongoose Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. You re booked up on your openings and know the Philidor and Lucena positions hands down, but how to convert all that theoretical knowledge into points against flesh-and-blood opponents? Jay Bonin, the Iron Man of Chess, shares the keys to victory as he s learned them over four decades of competitive play. Is it better to complicate the game, or to keep it simple? How do you create winning chances against a player who s happy to make a draw? When s the right time to trade queens? How to handle today s fast time controls? Using games selected from a career spanning more than three thousand tournaments, IM Bonin offers the answers to these and other practical questions that every chessplayer faces as the clock is ticking.
