

Kokocat, Inside and Out (Hardback)

By Lynda Graham-Barber

Gryphon Press, Canada, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Nancy Lane (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. This book should be required reading for all cat owners! Lynda Graham Barber's careful, direct words combine with Nancy Lane's beautiful, realistic illustrations to present a vivid picture of the comfort and security of an indoor cat, contrasted with the frightening, life-threatening dangers faced outdoors. KokoCat, Inside and Out gets across an important message without preaching, in a manner that will appeal to all ages of cat lovers as well as to the uninitiated. An important book with a vital point! - Libby Phillips Meggs, author of Go Home!: The True Story of James the Cat If any lost cat deserves to be found (and of course they all do), it is KokoCat. I love the artwork and the details about KokoCat's personality. Follow her outdoor adventure and learn why it is better to be inside than out. --Pet Detective Kat Albrecht, Founder, Missing Pet Partnership One day, KokoCat, a well-loved housecat, sees an open door, a chance to escape her pleasant life, to explore an exciting world outdoors. Once outside, she finds that life is more frightening and less enjoyable...
