

Every Man Has His Price: A Play (Classic Reprint)

By Luke North

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Every Man Has His Price: A Play He wears a silk hat, gaudy trousers, and a Prince Albert that almost fits him. His black hair has lost the dye at its roots and carries an excessive burden of tonic. There is more than enough pomade on his mustaches - and always a crumb or a spot on his brand new coat. His shoes and his voice squeak, his verbs wobble, and his hands tho soft are not quite clean. He is a self-made man somewhat botched in the making. He would like to be pompous and grand, but doesn t know how. He tries to combine the gruff, piratical sincerity of Collis P. Huntington with the garb and demeanor of Adolph Sutro and the pomposity of Leland Stanford - lacking, of course, the breadth of vision, personal honesty, and absence of pettiness which enabled these men to be great. In his own way, however, he is a type, and a man of some strength. By the rule of the attraction of opposites he can be...
