

Profiting by Experience

By Douglas Fairbanks

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the introductory. Experience comes by contact. There is no way we can have experiences without passing directly through them. If we are up and doing they come thick and fast into our lives, some of them weighted down by the peculiar twists and turns of circumstances, others simple, easily understood, and still others complicated to the point of not being understood at all. People are divided into two classes- those who profit by experience and those who do not. The unfortunate part of it all is that the latter class is by far the larger of the two. The man of vigorous purpose, fine constitution, and the full knowledge of self, sees through an experience as clearly as through a window. The glass may be foggy, but he knows what lies beyond. Self-reliant and strong he seeks knowledge through experience, while the weak man, the unhealthy-minded, the inefficient, stands aside and gives him the right of way. In later years, however, they bitterly complain that they were not given the same chance to succeed. The man of...

Reviews

This type of publication is almost everything and helped me looking forward and much more. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of your own time (that's what catalogs are for relating to if you ask me).

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is writter in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publish this publication.
