Philander Chase Knox of Pennsylvania: Delivered in the Senate of the United States Friday, August 29, 1919 It is no fault of mine if the facts themselves shall speak an impeachment of the wisdom, the purpose, or the result of the negotiations. Fortunately it is no longer necessary to insist upon the high importance of this treaty nor the fact that it marks the point in our history where we turn from our old course of proved happiness, prosperity, and safety to a new one, for us yet untried, of alliances, balance of power, and coalition with Countries and peoples whose interests, aspirations, and ideals are foreign to our own, because the people are waking to this as the true issue. Little by little they are bringing a divulgence of the facts connected with the treaty and they may now hope finally to see the whole of the great gaunt tragedy into Which those whom they had charged with protecting them were about to betray them. But as this treaty itself, as...
