Access Granted (Paperback)

By Aletha C. Warren, Tiffany C. Watkins

Revmedia, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The V.I.P. Principle is likened to having special treatment. Have you ever been in the V.I.P. section at a concert? A press box? Courtside seats at a basketball game? If you have, congratulations! You now understand the concept of the V.I.P. Principle. If you have not, you are about to experience what it is like to have preferential treatment and be admired among your friends. By reading and applying these tools, you will gain access that will guide you to a higher standard of living. That is the V.I.P. Principle. The V.I.P. Principle will give you the keys you need to gain access to the places in your mind and life you never thought were possible. Let us explain: If you have ever been to a high security building, you know that you cannot enter the facility unless you have an access card. Once the card is properly inserted into the identification machine, the computer will read Access Granted. To take it a step further, if you were to go into a more highly secured facility, you would need your fingerprints to access...
