AWARD IN NON-FICTION FINALIST In Walks on the Margins, Kathy Brandt and her son, Max

Maddox, write in alternating chapters about what it s like to battle bipolar illness. Kathy tells of the valiant and unapologetic struggle of a mother trying to find a semblance of her son as they are both wrapped in the turmoil of bipolar disorder. Exuding the most resilient love for her son and family, her narrative shows how it feels to be in the circle of those intimately affected by mental illness and in a world beset by institutional failure. Max depicts reality through the lens of the artist he is yet to become. With a callous, ruthless self-scrutiny, he retells both his manic and depressive episodes. At times unnerving, the fierce honesty of his prose is ameliorated by humor and a highly visual writing style. Max conveys a playful and unsettling beauty that he scratches off the seemingly dim surface of day-to-day life. It...
