Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This extremely neat, thoroughly edited anthology of carefully selected tales is another proud feather in the cap of Crystal Lake Publishing. For a collection of tales that will thrill, horrify, and generally captivate all readers of horror and dark fantasy, I highly recommend Tales from the Lake Vol.1 as a must-read! Allow the very first instalment of Tales From the Lake to transport you to lakeside terror in Lover, Come Back to Me, Lady of Lost Lake, and Game On; journey to the basement of your local pet store in Dead Pull and your neighbourhood pub in O Halloran s; visit the apocalypse in Devil s Night; travel to Africa in Witch-Compass and The Reunion; spend time with talking dolls in Don t Look at Me; experience the horrors of drug addiction from close up in Junksick; and climb a ladder to the heavens in Perrollo s Ladder. Tales From the Lake Vol.1 includes the winning stories from the 2013 Tales From the Lake Horror Writing Competition: a nautical tale in Jenn Loring s The Art of Wrecking; a bizarre story of strange addictions in J. Daniel Stone s Alternative Muses; and a cult horror story in the jungles of South America in William Ritchey s Las Maquinas. Introduction by Rocky Wood - current president of the HWA.
