Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Lebanon Valley College Bulletin, Vol. 1: April, 1903 Corporate Rights. - The College, established in 1866, was incorporated with full University privileges, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in an Act provided by the Executive on the 5th of April, A.D. 1867. The Management of the College is committed to a Board of Trustees, elected by the Annual Conferences cooperating in the enterprise, one-third of whom are elected annually for a term of three years. The members of the Faculty sustain an ex-officio relation. The charter indicates that it was the purpose of the founders to plant an institution which would become so ample in facilities and manifold in departments as to furnish instruction in all the subjects of a general and special education. Toward this original purpose the College is rapidly advancing. Form Of Bequest. - To persons desiring to aid in increasing the efficiency of the College in the work of preparing young men and women for usefulness, the following form of bequest is recommended: I give and bequeath to the Lebanon Valley College, at Annville, Pa., the sum of - dollars, for the general purpose of said school. Grounds and Buildings. The Campus includes about ten acres in the very heart of the beautiful Lebanon Valley, Annville, within easy access of the railway station, post office, churches, and the usual business places. Upon it are erected four commodious College buildings. South College, or the Ladies Hall, is a large brick building, entirely separate from the other premises, and under the immediate care of the Preceptress. Young ladies from abroad are furnished a comfortable and pleasant home, where they have every advantage for study...
