On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Legacy is based on previously classified British Government documents and Independent Research work. It highlights the inescapable fact that 2 unexplained deaths still tarnish the great history of sustainable development achieved by the people of Port Hope Simpson, SE Labrador, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada. What happened on one fateful night in the early hours of 3 February 1940, near Pioneer Street, Port Hope Simpson Town, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada remains stubbornly and inextricably bound-up with the history of the place and its people. Until the deaths are fully investigated and explained by the R.C.M.P. Serious Crimes Unit, The Department of Justice, St. John s, Newfoundland, Canada then the history of the town can never be truly known and at the very least the town s people are being denied full knowledge of their own past. At worst, personal knowledge about what really happened is still being kept hidden. Who died in what circumstances? Arthur Eric Williams b. 30.07.13, (eldest son of John Osborn Williams, owner of the Labrador Development Company Ltd. Logging company based in Port Hope Simpson from 1934) and Erica D Anitoff Williams b. 15.07.36 his infant daughter from Cardiff, Wales died on Feb 3 1940 in suspicious, acrimonious circumstances. Too many questions remain unanswered.too many established facts are beyond coincidence. Why are so many Newfoundland Rangers reports from Labrador missing from Provincial Archives in St. John s? (Clarence Dwyer, 18 years of age was the Ranger on duty at the Port Hope Simpson Detachment when the deaths occurred.) What was the real reason that explains why the retired Indian civil servant, Sir John Hope Simpson, Newfoundland Commissioner of Natural Resources and...
