The Outcasts: Life After the Great War of 2042

By Bill Thompson

Ascendente Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 316 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Seventeen-year-old Nate Dax sometimes asks himself if a person can die whos never been alive. Hes an Outcast he doesnt have a government chip so the authorities dont know he exists. But if they find him hell be put to death immediately. Today its 2094 and Nate hides in what used to be called Colorado when the United States was a country. Everything thats wrong now started with the disastrous presidential election of 2016, when most Americans didnt like either candidate. Four years later the people revolted, tossing out the incumbent and voting for a social democracy that lasted for twenty years. That election the one in 2040 - was the last in America. Two years later came the disasters. Doomsday prophets called them Gods wrath, but they were simply natural phenomena on an unthinkable scale. The Pacific earthquakes and tsunamis killed millions and weakened the San Andreas Fault. The Big One struck with fury, obliterating southern California. America floundered as its leaders helplessly wondered how to respond to such destruction. Others watched too, pleased at what was happening. Soon the enemies of the once-mighty nation took advantage...
