

In Disappearing Ink: Poems You Can't Find When You Need Them (Paperback)

By Michael Grossman

eBook Bakery, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Little known poets are lucky to have an audience on open mic nights. On arrival, we pencil our names at the bottom of a yellow pad. The featured poet reads first and then, time allowing, authors on the list head to the podium to pour out a poem and our hearts. Polite applause may follow. There's a flicker in time after such a reading, in the seconds it takes the poet to travel from the podium back to his or her seat, when kazaam! it's as if the words of the poem vanish, are never heard again. A friend, Tracy Hart, compares it to Buddhists creating a Mandela. They may labor in shifts for weeks, moving grains of colored sand and craft magnificent art. But when finished, they wipe the art away as a metaphor that nothing man-made lasts. It's the reality that suggested the title: In Disappearing Ink and the subtitle, poems you can never find when you need them. But it also brings to mind a very human reality: the joy anyone who has ever written a poem knows - a pleasure...
