Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The second exciting installment of the William Brody African Ocean Adventure Series: African Treasure: After rescuing the kidnapped village girls, Brody has been hailed a hero by the people of Pemba. In thanks for his bravery and leadership with their safe return, he is presented with an old wooden sailing dhow. Back to living the dream on the island, Brody's days are filled with sailing the coastline, diving, fishing and enjoying life to the fullest. That is until his life is turned upside down once again. A crazy race for lost treasure. When diving one day, Brody finds himself fighting for his life against a school of sharks. Narrowly escaping death while trapped in an underwater cave, he discovers the hilt from a sword. After some investigation, he realizes this is part of a larger haul, so the hunt is on! But the Kaya Bombo - a radical Islamic group - also have their eyes on the prize. They want the treasure to return the island to Sharia law and will not let anyone or anything get in their way. Time is running out. Now it's a race against time as Brody battles the terrorists and the ocean to find the treasure and escape. With bullets flying, Brody will do whatever it takes. But only if he can manage to stay alive long enough to claim the prize.  This book in the set can be read as a standalone without prior reading of the first book in the set. But the first book is pretty great so you might want to check it out! **.
