One advice I have to give--abstain from drink. I wish you all kinds of prosperity. Farewell. I just give you this to let you see what brought us here. On the Commander-in-Chief getting the report he came to see us himself. He made a great speech. He said we looked as though we had just landed from England, and that he was very proud to hear of our bravery in the field, and conduct in quarters, and then told us that the twenty-ninth were suffering from sickness, and that we should have to go and relieve them. In less than three days we left Ferozepore for this place. TEMPERANCE IN THE ARMY. 71 Wuzeerabad is very briefly described in the same letter: -- We have no barracks here, only tents with sheds over them. We have neither...
