Ingenium Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The way we all work is changing - because of technology, a globalized economy, and business evolution. The rise in self-employment, including freelancing, is altering the economies of countries like Canada, the UK, EU member countries, and the US. Soon, the majority of the global workforce will need some understanding of how to run a business. Because their livelihood will depend on it. Award-winning former journalist Boni Wagner-Stafford and serial entrepreneur John Wagner-Stafford bring their decades of experience starting, running, and growing businesses, along with research and storytelling, to help you discover what it takes to Rock Your Business. They share stories of what they've done. They've interviewed dozens of other business startup rock stars and share their wisdom with you, too. Curious about defining your purpose? Check. Want to explore options for your business structure? Check. Wonder why people are always telling you to consult a lawyer for that? Check. Think intellectual property is the sprawling estate of Bill Gates? We'll set you straight. Want to know how soon you can start hiring other people to do the stuff you hate? Check. What exactly is all the fuss about cash flow? Check chapter 11. Want to ditch the customers that drive you crazy? You go right ahead. We'll walk you through it. Being an entrepreneur and in business for yourself is an exhilarating, rewarding ride. Whether you're starting up with a unique business idea, developing a new technological solution to an everyday problem, buying and operating a franchise, or building a freelance or work-from-home small business, there's a lot to juggle in the planning, execution and measurement. It takes a bit of science, a lot of...
