Potomac Books Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Friedrich von Boetticher was Germany's only military attache accredited to the United States between the world wars. As such, he was Germany's official military observer in the capital of the nation whose potential as an ally of those powers arrayed against Adolf Hitler in the 1930s might have given the dictator pause in any predatory plans he harbored against his neighbors. Though von Boetticher produced a rich and detailed commentary on military and political affairs in Washington in the eight years prior to the outbreak of war between Germany and the United States in 1941, he was nonetheless accused after the war of misjudging America's productive potential and misleading Hitler with overly optimistic reports. He was also anti-Semitic and believed that Jewish wire-pullers had undue influence over the U.S. government and its policies. His professional ties to U.S. Army officers in the War Department were so strong - supplying them, for example, with details on German air strength and operations during the Battle of Britain in 1940 - that they survived until August 1941 and long after the German ambassador himself had been recalled. Torn...
